Owl Cottage & Wild Rose

JEDBURGH, ROXBURGHSHIRE

Situated on a working farm nestling below the Cheviots, these charming cottages promise comfort and tranquillity, with the majority of rooms having views over open countryside. Both are well-equipped and have central heating and a woodburner or open fire.

Wild Rose Cottage has a double and triple bedroom, sitting room, kitchen/breakfast room, bathroom and boiler room. Owl Cottage has two double (one can become a twin) and one twin bedroom, sitting room, kitchen/breakfast room, bathroom and shower room. It also has a large utility/games room with tabletop football and snooker table – and its tiled floor makes it well suited for those wet dog days! There is ample private parking plus paved and lawned gardens with furniture and BBQ.

Both cottages have dishwasher, washing machine and tumble drying facilities.

The Borders is renowned for its walking including The Southern Upland Way, St Cuthbert's Way and The Pennine Way. Why not stay on the farm and take one of our farm walks around Bairnkine's 1100 acres, stopping off in the picnic area to admire the view or sit in the hide to watch the wildlife?

- Secluded private island
- Boat included with each let
- Canoes and dinghies available
- Amazing wildlife at every turn on land or sea
- Relics and ruins dating back to the Stone Age

Totally unique private island extending to over 1500 acres with just four holiday cottages. There are no roads, cars, electricity or telephones, and a Shuna holiday offers an opportunity to totally escape from modern life, yet is just a few minutes by boat from the mainland, with easy access to surrounding areas. The island has great opportunities for walking, wildlife watching, sea fishing and watersports.

Each house is very cosy with gas powered fridges, cookers, lights and water heating. All the houses have either open fires or woodburners. The ultimate get away from it all holiday!
