The cottages at Scolton Home Farm were originally farm buildings and have been converted into 10 comfortable holiday homes grouped around a large courtyard. Surrounded by farm and woodland, yet only a 10-minute drive from the county town of Haverfordwest, they are ideally situated for exploring and discovering the many faces of the beautiful county of Pembrokeshire.

Here at the farm there are picnic tables and benches dotted about in sunny and shady spots, where you can sit, read and relax. Watch the ducks and moorhens on our large duck pond, or feed our goats and ponies. There is a children's play area and space to kick a ball or fly a kite. Start or end your day with a swim in our indoor heated pool with its own steam room, sauna and patio, where you can enjoy a barbecue and watch the sun set over Plumbstone Mountain.

All our comfortable and centrally heated cottages have well-equipped open-plan kitchen/dining living areas, TVs and bathrooms, with beds made up ready for your arrival. Cots, highchairs and stair gates are available at no extra cost, and all cottages except Dairy have direct access to the courtyard, a safe place for children to play and families to gather. Each cottage has its own picnic table and there are portable barbecues available. There is a large communal utility room with coin-operated laundry facilities, payphone and tourist information – even spare wellington boots and colouring books.

Penwern Fach Holiday Cottages

The original stone buildings on Penwern Fach, once a working farm, have been sympathetically converted into five award winning self-catering cottages. They are in the heart of beautiful countryside, just over a mile from the picturesque village of Cenarth with its famous waterfalls. It is easy to feel you've completely escaped to another world, but activities and places to go and see are never far away.

Accommodation styles vary from a pretty studio cottage – ideal for a romantic break for two – to a 4-bedroom, 2-storey property with plenty of space for the larger family. We have kept stone walls and exposed beams, but added everything you need, such as fully equipped kitchens with fridge/freezers, microwaves, and dishwashers. The cottages are kept beautifully clean and have wood burning stoves, comfortable furniture, fitted carpets and colour TV. Each cottage has its own patio complete with table, chairs and outside lighting.

Gwbert-on-Sea

Golygfa Deg

Prices from £370-£725

Golygfa Deg – Fair View – is a beautifully presented bungalow at Gwbert-on-Sea, a small quiet hamlet at the mouth of the Teifi Estuary, just a few miles outside Cardigan. With beautiful beaches and golf on the doorstep, this is the ideal location for your perfect holiday. Whether you just want to relax and enjoy the peace and quiet, or live life to the full, Cardigan Bay has it all. The ancient oak woodland of the Teifi Valley, the tidal marshes of the estuary and the splendour of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park can all be appreciated from here.

There are three bedrooms (2 double, 1 twin), bathroom, shower room and a very light and spacious lounge-diner with ever-changing sea views. French doors open onto the front patio where you can fully appreciate the dramatic setting. The new, fully fitted kitchen is extremely well equipped (oven, hob, microwave, fridge freezer, dishwasher, washer-drier etc). Full double glazing and oil central heating throughout.

As well as the front patio, there is a small rear patio, which enjoys the morning sun, and a large enclosed lawn with garden furniture – ideal for children. Ample parking on the driveway.
